

Commerce Bank of Folsom Hires SVP of Branch Banking

Latest addition, Linda Aseltine to lend over 40 years of industry experience

Folsom, Calif., Feb. 19, 2008 – Today, Commerce Bank of Folsom announced its newest addition, Linda Aseltine, who will serve as Senior Vice President Branch Banking. In this position, Linda will oversee the policies and procedures of the Bank’s Operations. Linda has an extensive background in the banking industry, beginning her first role in 1966.

“This opportunity at Commerce Bank of Folsom will truly put all of my years of experience and education to the test. I look forward to the excitement of being a part of this success oriented group,” explained Linda.

“It’s rare to find someone with Linda’s extensive management background. We recognize how fortunate we are to have her as a critical part of our team, leading the branch and all associates in our core philosophy, which is supporting this community and its financial needs to the fullest extent,” stated Greg Patton, Bank President and CEO.

Linda has been a resident of Fair Oaks for more than 10 years; she enjoys being involved in her community and is a member of Rotary’s Rancho Cordova Chapter.
